

TRAVEL

Grand as Well as Green

By JAIME CUNNINGHAM

JUST BECAUSE A HOTEL IS LUXURIOUS DOESN'T MEAN IT HAS TO COMPROMISE THE environment. Some topnotch resorts are experimenting with innovative ecological programs that aim to keep the planet's—and their own—best interests at heart. The guests like them, too. The Mount Nelson Hotel in Cape Town is one of South Africa's finest, boasting rejuvenating spa treatments, afternoon tea and stunning views of Table Mountain. It is also home to more than 120,000 earthworms that, through Mount Nelson's Vermiculture Project, aid in

INTO THE WILD: The InterContinental Moorea rehabilitates sea turtles

